Local Presidents' Summit

Saturday, February 23, 2019 • 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Marriott Columbus University Area, 3100 Olentangy River Road, Columbus, OH 43202

President Becky Higgins has called this Local Presidents' Summit on Saturday, February 23. This meeting is designed specifically for local presidents.

This critical meeting provides time for presidents to meet with colleagues, OEA officers and staff to discuss the serious challenges posed by the loss of fair share (agency) fee as well as how proactive conversations have strengthened our union. The Summit will provide leaders with the opportunity to share strategies and best practices around member engagement and political action and an update on the legal challenges facing OEA and the labor movement.

Local presidents will leave the Summit with an increased understanding of how to continue building a vibrant and relevant association in a changing membership environment.

The Summit will be held at the Marriott Columbus University Area, 3100 Olentangy River Road, Columbus, on the OSU campus, on Saturday, February 23, 2019, from 10:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Registration will begin at 10:00 a.m. Parking is free. Lunch will be provided. OEA will reimburse for mileage to/from your home to the meeting location. No other expenses will be reimbursed.

Please register by Friday, February 8.

Attendees may register online at: www.ohea.org/local-presidents-summit/

For questions, please call Governance staff at 800-282-1500 ext. 3088 or 614-227-3088.

The conference is for local presidents and co-presidents only, or if they are unable to attend, one executive committee member. One participant per local is invited to attend.
