Learn Cultural Competency and Equity Literacy content and skills at this two-day, OEA Professional Learning Seminar.

July 16, 2019

10 a.m. – 6 p.m.

July 17, 2019

8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

OEA Headquarters, Columbus, Ohio

During this two-day Professional Learning Seminar you will:

Develop foundational knowledge in social justice and equity literacy.

Identify your own belief systems through the analysis and creation of narratives.

Apply concepts of equity literacy to recognize institutional inequities within educational settings.

Engage in dialogue with colleagues about equity literacy and its impact in communities and school systems.

Consider how to implement tools and techniques which redress bias and support student self-actualization.

This Seminar is limited to thirty-five members. If you are accepted, OEA will provide all resource materials, hotel costs for one night, and breakfast, lunch, and snacks for all training days. Dinner will be on your own.
